

Dear Commission, Without competing sources of information, a democracy cannot exist. Please do not do this to us and to our children. We have the greatest country in the world because of our freedom of information and our freedom of speech--one cannot exist without the other. Please do not change this. Sincerely,
William Maxwell